William T. Coleman (“Plaintiff”), proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, brought this action alleging violations of his constitutional rights pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. On October 5, 2017, the undersigned issued an order directing Plaintiff to provide documents necessary for service of this case. [ECF No. 3]. On October 31, 2017, the undersigned issued a second order, noting that Plaintiff had not responded to the first order and again directing him to provide the necessary documents for service of this case. [ECF No. 7]. On November 6, 2017, the court’s October 5, 2017 order was returned as undeliverable, with “Released” written on the envelope. [ECF No. 9]. Plaintiff has failed to keep the court apprised of his address, and as a result, neither the court nor the defendants have any means of contacting him concerning his case.

Based on the foregoing, it is recommended that this action be dismissed with prejudice, in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). The Clerk is directed to send this Report and Recommendation to Plaintiff at his last known address. If Plaintiff notifies the court within the time set for filing objections to this Report and Recommendation that he wishes to continue with this case and provides a current address, the Clerk is directed to vacate this Report and Recommendation and return this file to the undersigned for further handling. If, however, no objections are filed, the Clerk shall forward this Report and Recommendation to the district judge for disposition.

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED.
